

JANUARY 15, 1821.

Read twice, and committed to a committee of the whole House to-morrow.

A BILL

Authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to transfer certain balances of appropriations to the surplus fund.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of 2 the United States of America in Congress assembled, That
3 it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury, imme-4 diately after the passing of this act, to cause to be carried to 5 the account of the surplus fund of the moneys appropriated 6 for the service of the year one thousand eight hundred and 7 twenty, and for previous years, the following sums, that is to 8 say: of the moneys appropriated for the civil list, two hundred 9 and ninety-three thousand eight hundred and ninety-one dol-10 lars and fifty-nine cents: of the moneys appropriated for 11 miscellaneous objects, one hundred and eighty-one thousand 12 eight hundred and twenty-eight dollars and sixty cents: of the 13 moneys appropriated for foreign intercourse, and for the re-14 lief and protection of American seamen, one hundred and 15 thirty-two thousand four hundred and fifty-nine dollars and

16 forty-two cents: of the moneys appropriated for the payment
17 of the interest, and redemption of the principal, of the public
18 debt, one million five hundred and ninety thousand seven hun-
19 dred and forty-five dollars and seventy cents: of the moneys 20 appropriated for the military establishment, including the 21 ordnance department, and military and revolutionary pensions,
22 the following sums, that is to say: of the pay of the army, one 23 hundred and sixty-six thousand and twenty-nine dollars: of the 24 recruiting service, including bounties and premiums, fifty-two 25 thousand and eighty-two dollars: the contingencies of the re-
26 cruiting service, twelve thousand four hundred and eighty-27 nine dollars: the subsistence of the non-commissioned officers, 28 musicians, and privates, sixty-five thousand two hundred and 29 five dollars and forty-four cents: the clothing of the army,
30 contingencies and camp equipage, thirteen thousand one hun-
31 dred and sixty-two dollars: the medical and hospital establish-32 ment, six thousand dollars: the retained bounty, pay, and 33 travelling expenses of discharged soldiers, fifteen thousand 34 dollars: the national armories, ten thousand dollars: the cur-
35 rent expenses of the ordnance department, forty-two thou-
36 sand six hundred and seventy-one dollars: military pensions,
37 one hundred and one thousand and sixty-eight dollars: revo-
38 lutionary pensions, one million three hundred and ninety-one
39 thousand seven hundred and thirty-one dollars and thirteen 40 cents.